

Curriculum vitae

Matthew Wilson is a Senior Lecturer and Subject Area Leader of the History and Theory of Architecture and Interior Design at the University for the Creative Arts, Canterbury School of Architecture. He is a Graduate Faculty member at Ball State University, College of Architecture and Planning, where he previously taught courses on architecture and urbanism spanning from prehistory through to postmodernism. Wilson received a PhD in History from Royal Holloway, University of London and an MA with distinction in Landscape Urbanism from the Architectural Association. He holds an undergraduate degree in Architecture from the University of Texas at San Antonio. Wilson writes studies of aspects of urbanism, sociology and political thought.