

Calogero Montalbano

Architect, received his PhD in in Architectural Design in 2002. He is since 2008 an aggregate professor at the Polytechnic of Bari in Architectural and Urban Design. Member of Retevitruvio, Italian inter-university network of ssd icar/14/15/16 (since 2010). Member of the Academic Board of the PhD in "Architectural design for the Mediterranean countries" (2010-12). Elected member of the Academic Senate at the Polytechnic of Bari (2012-15). Elected member of the "Strategic Committee" of the Polytechnic of Bari (2013- 15). Member of the Academic Board of the PhD "Architecture: Innovation And Heritage" (since 2013). Member of the Italian National Committee of ICOMOS - International Council on Monuments and Sites, Italian National Council of Monuments and Sites (since 2014). Member international Committee of ENHR – European Network for Housing Research (since 2015). Reviewer in the International Journal "Journal of Civil Engineering and Architecture Research" (since 2015). Deputy Rector of the Polytechnic of Bari for the new University Library System (since 2015). His research is based on the technical and technological updating of settlement and housing building techniques. He is author or co-author of 68 scientific papers in the context of Urban Enhancement of Cultural Heritage and Sustainable Development in Urban scale. He has also published 7 academic books and he took part in over 16 design competitions. He took part in over 7 international and 17 national programme. He is inventor of one filed patent in area of recycling and innovative sustainable buildings.