

Curriculum Vitae

João Cabeleira is an architect and auxiliary professor at the School of Architecture of the University of Minho. In 2015 concluded his PhD at EAUM entitled “Imaginary Architecture: Real and illusory space in the Portuguese baroque.” The research looks into architecture and perspective treatises searching for intersections among science and design processes of imaginary architectures. From 2001 to 2008 collaborated at the architectural studio of António Madureira. In 2002/2003 was Monitor of Project II course (FAUP) and since 2006 he is responsible for the course of Geometry at the EAUM.