

SHORT CURRICULAR NOTE

Vito QUADRATO

-1990 Born in Bari (Italy), 2nd January

-2008 graduation at Liceo classico Socrate in Bari

-2013 he won the third prize of the architectural competition named "call for a Metropolitan station in Montesanto, Napoli".

-2015 he completes the Master of architecture at Politecnico di Bari in, working on the "Socialist industrial heritage in Albania" and the reconversion of the greatest Albanian Powerplant. "Archiprix, 2017 edition", awarded the degree project as one of the sixty world's best graduation project and it received some scholarships.

-2015/2016 he works as architect at (dp)a studio and at Artwort magazine as editor. He displays a drawing "Mediterranean underground" at "30<30 architectural drawings under 30 from all over the world" at galleria Tulpenmanie, Fuori Salone (Milan, Italy).

- 2016/2017 he is Ph.D. student of doctoral programme "architecture: innovation and heritage" at University of RomaTre (Roma, Italy) and Politecnico di Bari (Italy). His research interest deal with the XXth century industrial heritage and reconversion design of industrial decommissioned areas; the anonymous and spontaneous practices of construction; the contribution of South American Modernism and Brutalism in public spaces and infrastructures.