

SHORT CURRICULAR NOTE

Miguel BAPTISTA-BASTOS was born in Lisbon in 1971. He studied at the Arroio School of Arts and Architecture at Faculdade de Arquitectura da Universidade Técnica de Lisboa, where he graduated in Architecture. Worked in several workshops and had their own office, designing and executing various projects across the country and beyond. He is a teacher in the Faculdade de Arquitectura da Universidade de Lisboa since 1998, where he taught always "Architectural Design", although parallel as other disciplines, such as "Set Design", "Set design and Exhibition", "Ephemeral Architectures", "Rehabilitation of coastal areas" and "urban requalification"; currently teaches the 4th Year. Did master's and doctoral. Has made over the years of teaching a parallel research work in various areas related to architecture. Has nationally and internationally published articles; did, does, and gave lectures, workshops and other activities related to teaching. Assists the "training center FAUL", is the scientific coordinator of the "Cycle of Lectures of Architecture Faculty" and "FA - Cinema Cycle". Also he is the scientific coordinator in the field of architecture of CIAUD (Research Centre for Architecture, Urbanism and Design FA). At present, he holds the position of advisor to the management of the Faculty of Architecture of the University of Lisbon