

SHORT CURRICULAR NOTE

Maria Leonor García da CRUZ

cruzmaria@campus.ul.pt; ml.garciacruz@gmail.com

Professor and Researcher at Faculty of Arts and Humanities of the University of Lisbon – FLUL. PhD. in Early Modern History (UL 1999). Researcher in Early Modern History and European overseas Expansion (Maghreb, Asia and America), supervising master thesis, PhD. and postdoctoral dissertations in societies, mindsets, institutions, political and financial management, representations. Member of the Research Units “Building and Connecting Empires” and “Cultural Encounters and Intersecting Societies” at the History Centre of the University of Lisbon, she supervises research projects in IMAGETICS: interdisciplinary studies on representations and identitarian constructions, and TREASURY: history of economic thought and management, taxation, social networks, politics and ethics, from the 15th to 19th centuries. Publications in RCAAP and in international journals indexed.
<https://lisboa.academia.edu/MariaLeonorGarciaCruz/CurriculumVitae>