

SHORT CV

Eduarda Lobato de FARIA holds a degree in Architecture (FAUTL), 1984, Lisbon, awarded the PhD, 2007, Oporto, having submitted her thesis "The Conception in Architecture, a Four Dimensional Phenomenon: The Human Being, Drawing, Time and Built Work". Has lectured in various Universities and Architecture schools in the area of architectural drawing, since 1985, in integrated master's and doctoral Courses as well as undertaken the coordination of their lecturing teams.

Member of the FAUL Research Centre in Architecture, Urbanism and Design (CIAUD), integrating several research groups and projects. The Conception in Architecture and Drawing are her main research subjects, having organized and participated in exhibitions, interviews, conferences, congresses and seminars events and contributed to national and international scientific publications.