

SHORT CV

Luis Miguel CORTÉS SÁNCHEZ (Don Benito, 1994). Architect, researcher and professor. Graduated in Fundamentals of Architecture (2017) and Master in Architecture (2018) from the Seville School of Architecture (Spain), receiving the Extraordinary End of Studies Prize for the academic year 2016/17. Continuing with his research work that began in 2018, in 2020 he was awarded a predoctoral contract from the Ministry of Education of the Government of Spain that allowed him to belong to the Department of History, Theory and Architectural Compositions of the Seville School of Architecture (Spain), as well as to begin his career as a professor in this department. A member of the research group "City, Architecture and Contemporary Heritage", he is currently working on his doctoral thesis, which focuses on the material relationship between architecture and the landscape.
