

SHORT CV

MARÍA F. CARRASCAL PÉREZ

Huelva - España, 1982.

PhD Architect and Lecturer in Architectural History, Theory and Composition, teaching at the University of Seville since 2008. Her work focuses on the regeneration of contemporary cities from the sector of creativity and culture. Responsible of the r&d&i project CREAfab: Creative Reindustrialization of Historic Centers, Andalusian Government (2022-24), and the creative industries program in the Management Plan for the Historic Municipal Heritage of Seville (2019-22). Cofounder of the international platforms Laboratorio Q: Places of Urban Creativity (2012-) and @dmujerand: Design and Women in Andalusia (2019-). She has been visiting scholar at Cornell University, Columbia University, POLIMI, UPC, among others. Cofounder of ARTIPICA, Creative Spaces (2011-), Spain.