

SHORT CV

Sarah LAHATA (1990), Architect (2016), Master's degree in Innovation in architecture: technology and design (2018), and Master's degree in Sustainable city and architecture (2020) by the Higher Technical School of Architecture of Seville. Student in 2nd year of the Doctoral Program in Architecture at the University of Seville, with the thesis in progress From the life of forms to the forms-of-life. An architectural reflection for the concept of inhabitation. The research for the thesis aims to explore contemporary inhabitation and architecture illuminated by the hypothesis of a posthuman subject that goes beyond the unique and universal logic of Humanism. The relationship between architecture and the biological is approached by drawing on transdisciplinary readings and concepts. Language skills: French (C1-TEF), Spanish (C1), and English (B2-IELTS).
