

SHORT CV

Sheila Palomares ALARCÓN.

Architect, Ph.D. (International Mention - Research Thesis Award "Cronista Alfredo Cazabán 2018") and Ph.D. in History with specific competences in the field of Cultural Heritage.

Currently, she is a Margarita Salas Postdoctoral researcher at the University of Jaén (Spain) and a collaborator at CIDEHUS-University of Évora (Portugal). She is editor of Water and Landscape and editorial staff of MDCCC 1800. Her main research lines are Architecture and Cultural Heritage. Her principal interest is Industrial Heritage and its reuse in the territorial scope of southern Europe and the Mediterranean Basin.