SHORT CV - Inês VAZ

Inês Vaz is a Portuguese aspiring researcher. She completed a master's degree in Modern Literatures and Cultures (specializing in English and North American Studies) at NOVA School of Social Sciences and Humanities in 2022. Her master's dissertation focused on female renditions of the monomyth in children's fantasy literature. In 2020 she got her first article published in the academic journal Messengers From the Stars. Her research interests include children's literature, literature and other media, fantasy, mythology, fairy tales and neo-Victorianism.
